Merit List Policy for FYUGP Admissions (As per NEP 2020)

1. Basis of Merit List Preparation

- Department-wise Lists: Merit lists shall be prepared separately for each department, based on the applicant's choice of Major subject.
- Minor Subject Consideration: If an applicant opts for double Minor subjects, the merit list will be prepared based on the first Minor subject chosen.
- 2. Eligibility Criteria
- Academic Qualifications: Applicants must have successfully completed the Higher Secondary (10+2) examination or its equivalent from a recognized board.
- Students intending to pursue a Major in a specific subject must have studied as one of the subjects at the Higher Secondary (10+2) level or its equivalent.

3. Calculation of Merit Score

- Subject Relevance: Marks obtained in relevant subject opting to take major will be counted as merit score while choosing Major.

4. Reservation Policy

- As per Government Norms: Reservations for SC/ST/OBC/EWS and other categories will be implemented in accordance with the prevailing government policies.

6. Publication of Merit Lists

- Transparency: Merit lists will be published on the official college website and notice boards.
- Grievance Redressal: Helpline numbers for addressing grievances related to the merit list have been provided, with a designated committee to handle such cases.

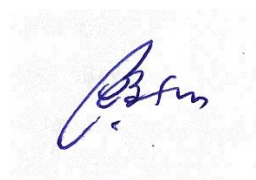

7. Admission Procedure

- Document Verification: Shortlisted candidates must present original documents for verification.
- Fee Payment: For APL students, admission will be confirmed upon successful payment of the requisite fees within the stipulated time frame.
- Free admission will be provided to students whose parental annual income is below Rs 2 lakhs and on the basis of successful fulfilment of condition while uploading ration card in the admission portal. Student will have to produce original ration card on the day of admission.
- Admission will be conducted as per the timeline provided by the college in the Students Notice tab in the college website.

N.B.: Students who have not been listed in the different major and minor subjects may re-apply in other major and minor subjects where vacant seats are available.

Admission in different major subjects will only be granted to students subject to satisfactory performance during admission counselling even if listed in the merit list

For any grievances related to admission, kindly visit Grievance Redressal Cell portal of the college website www.janatacollege.co.in
